Wednesday 28th June to Saturday 1st July 2023 - 3 Night/4 Day Tour

Following the success of our previous Yorkshire tours it's time to bring you Yorkshire 4!

We have another wonderful and varied programme for Yorkshire 4 - with a visit to 4 wonderful historic homes, a sculpture garden and a sculpture park, an award winning art gallery and a visit to see a little mouse!!

Entrance fees and specialist tour costs plus lunch on the final day are included in the package price.

Accommodation and Food

We will once again stay at Solberge Hall Hotel just 4 miles outside Northallerton (address - Newby Wiske, South Otterington, Northallerton DL7 9ES). We will be on a dinner, bed and breakfast basis.

Travel

You will make your own way to and from the hotel. If you are coming by train Northallerton Railway station is on the North East mainline, and the hotel is a five minute taxi ride away and there are usually taxis at the station, or Linda's taxi if I am available! We will then have coach transport for our days out with, of course, your very own Yorkshire Blue Badge Tour guide! I will provide commentary throughout the tour and ensure you see as much of Yorkshire as possible during your stay, whether it be your return visit or your first visit - all are welcome.

Itinerary

Day 1 - Wednesday

You will make your own way to the hotel this morning and check in.

12.45 pm We depart the hotel and head a short distance to Sion Hill Hall for a private tour with the owner. It is one of the last Edwardian stately homes to be built in Yorkshire prior to the Great War. It is a fine example of neo-Georgian architecture and has beautifully furnished rooms and a charming garden making it a splendid example of an Edwardian country house designed in the Arts and Crafts period.
